

PROCESS CONTROL GLASS

Furnace batching and supply

- Process supervision and control
- New equipment
- Resource optimisation by revamping of equipment with no stop of production

Implementation

- Installation, programming of the major software packages and supervisors of the market
- Related supplies, wiring of cabinets and electrical installations

Many interventions and installations on the different sites of the major glass manufacturing groups.

- Drawing up of « Production and Maintenance » specifications of maintenance installations in partnership with the production department.
- »Control and Batching » functional analysis proposed by the same principal.
- Installation and production launching of equipment on site
- Personnel training and assistance.